The Importance of International Marketing

In today's global marketplace, international marketing is more crucial than ever. For companies with a worldwide consumer base, trade shows are a vital tool. By setting up an international pavilion with a large flag or bold signage, you'll attract all eyes to your spot on the show floor. Don't let attendees miss your presence - make a statement with a distinct area that demands attention!

Statement Pavilions Stand Out

Going solo with a small exhibit is a risk - you might get lost in the crowd of exhibitors. But pavilions? Now that's making a statement! As the coordinator, your job is to ensure your pavilion represents the highest quality, most professional offerings at the show. Think of it as the outward wrapping that screams "We mean business!"

Custom Pavilions for 4 Exhibitors, 40 Exhibitors, even 400 Exhibitors

Pavilion design comes with its own set of challenges. From confirming exhibitors to ordering furnishings and A/V equipment to meeting graphic deadlines, there's a lot more to it than just sticking to the theme. Luckily, the exhibit sponsor works with a project manager who takes care of every exhibit participant's needs. And if clients need extra items, they can order directly, taking the stress off your shoulders.

Modern Pavilion Design Gains Attention

At Absolute Exhibits, our design team doesn't settle for blending in - we go the extra mile to make sure our clients stand out from the crowd. Bold colors, expert lighting, and eye-catching graphics are just a few of our secret weapons. We're all about making a statement on the show floor, and we're not afraid to be bold and daring. In today's trade shows and fairs, audio-visual equipment is crucial for many exhibitors. That's why we have a dedicated IT department that can handle all your tech needs. We understand that each group and industry has unique requirements, whether it's cooking areas, bar service, private meeting rooms, stages, or demonstrations, and we can incorporate them into a custom-designed pavilion. ## Special Events & Entertainment

We take pride in helping our pavilion clients host successful events at their trade shows. Our services extend beyond exhibit design and construction. We can assist in organizing after-hours cocktail parties, dinner parties with transportation to local restaurants or clubs, music events, and even ribbon cutting ceremonies with dignitaries. Some clients prefer to showcase native entertainment within their exhibit, and we can assist with procuring and coordinating those services as well.
